

■ Ahoy there
... artist
Cameron
Stelzer and wife
Jenny donned
their best pirate gear for the opening of the $800,000 public
program space.
Picture: Dale
Haberfield
DH164487

Gallery's a mass of inspiration

weekender out and about
Aye, aye me hearties

DH164487

■ Creative spirit ... Amanda Wilson enjoys pirate craft with children Mieka and Annika.

head for the gallery

DH164487

■ One-eyed ... Annette and Alan Lacey certainly looked the part at the opening.

DH164487

■ Good fun ... Ashleigh and Chloe Sanft took part in the art gallery festivities.

DH164487

■ Fancy hats ... Lesley and Phoebe Nicholson's headwear was in theme.

Get more pics
 every day.

albertlogannews.com.au

A PIRATE theme set the scene for the opening of Logan Art Gallery's new $800,000 public program space last Friday.

Guests packed the new studio, which features a children storytelling and relaxation area, outdoor courtyard, and Japanese garden from Logan's sister city Hirakata.

Pictures: Dale Haberfield

DH164487

■ Early starter ... age proved no barrier to Alison and Bradley Glover.

DH164487

■ Terrific trio ... Rachael and Tyson Stelzer with little pirate Linden joined in.

DH164487

■ Dynamic duo ... Annette Turner and Cr Hajnal Ban were all smiles.